HALL'S CATARRH CURE

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS.
Catarrh of the nasal cavity—chronic and ulcerative; Catarrh of the Ear, Eye or Throat. It is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is the best blood purifier in the world, and is worth all that is charged for it, for THAT alone.

ONLY INTERNAL CURE FOR CATARRH IN THE MARKET.
And we offer One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrh it will not cure.

WILL CURE ANY CASE.
Office of A. T. STEWART & Co.,
Chicago, Ill., June 4, 1880.
Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.
Gentlemen:—I take pleasure in informing you that I have used Hall's Catarrh Cure. It has cured me—I was very bad—and don't hesitate to say that it will cure any case of Catarrh if taken properly.

Yours truly,
J. H. WEATHERFORD.
WORTH BIG A BOTTLE.
E. McRae, Jackson, Mich., writes: Have had Catarrh for 30 years. Hall's Catarrh Cure cured me. Consider it worth $10.00 a bottle.

SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

WATCH MAKER.

Successor to B. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

Belle Point.

Chicken-pox is prevalent over here. Nearly all the children have it.

Madame Rumor says we are to have a wedding soon on Kentucky Avenue.

Mr. N. I. McDaniel is building a new barn on the corner of Todd and Wilson streets.

Miss Ida Ziegler is visiting relatives on Flat Creek. She will remain until after Christmas.

Mr. Chas. L. McKee went to Louisville Tuesday to buy a new stock of goods, Christmas toys, etc.

Messrs. Jesse Mann and Jerre Long have erected a new wagon shop and are doing a lively business.

Judge W. L. Pence has put up an automatic carriage gate at the entrance to his place on Benson Avenue.

There is a fine opening over here for a fresh meat and vegetable store, and there is money in it to a live business man.

The store-room recently occupied by Mr. J. T. Pendleton has been converted into a dwelling and a family have moved into it.

Mr. O. B. Polsgrove will soon begin the manufacture of tobacco hogheads in the old Blair house, now owned by Mr. J. N. Crutcher.

Don't forget to subscribe to the stock of the People's Kentucky River Navigation Company if you are in favor of cheap transportation.

Mr. W. H. Lewis will soon begin the erection of a large and commodious livery stable on the lot recently purchased from the Burns heirs.

There has been a movement on foot to erect a house of worship, to be used by all denominations. It is needed very much, and no doubt will be built in the spring.

Our Sunday School is still in a prosperous condition. There will be a Christmas tree at the Chapel one evening during Christmas week for the benefit of the Sunday School scholars.

Peaks Mill.

Turkeys are ripe.

Peak's Mill has something to give away—chicken-pox.

Henry Penn and lady spent Sunday with Mrs. A. M. Forsee.

Robert Suter has returned from Commercial College with his diploma.

John and Sweet William were on hand Sunday looking as handsome as ever.

The Misses Wigginton and brother were the guests of Miss Georgia Church Sunday.

Misses Mattie and Nora Church paid a visit of several days at their uncle Henry Church's.

Mrs. Mattie Graham and Pearl Pollett spent the past week visiting relatives in the North Fork neighborhood.

We are having a series of good meetings going on at Pleasant Hill, conducted by Brothers Munnell and Ford.

There has been quite an erroneous story in circulation in regard to A. C. Henry, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Haxatha, Kansas. We denounce it a falsehood. It is true he had a difficulty during the summer, and was very badly hurt, but no one was killed, and we are happy to say he has fully recovered from his injuries.

More Light.

Editor Roundabout:

The gas lamp situated nearly opposite the City Mills, on Ann street, is out of repair, and has not been lighted since the new company took charge of the Gas Works. It is located at the mouth of an alley, where it is very dark and walking dangerous. Can't it be attended to, Mr. Superintendent? TAX PAYER

Thanks.

LEESTOWN, KY., Dec. 6, 1882

Editor Roundabout:

We, the ladies of Leestown, who have for many years been obliged to walk through the mud, wish to express our thanks to the several gentlemen who have labored so assiduously in securing the completion of the side walk on that road between this place and Frankfort.

The Capital Question.

Editor Roundabout:

Very grave and serious fears were entertained during the last session of the Legislature in regard to the removal of the Capital. In fact it looked very much at one time as if it would be done. It is very important, then, that the citizens should awake to the danger that threatens them, and take proper steps in time to prevent what would indeed be a real calamity.

Whatever opinions may be entertained to the contrary, the removal of the Capital would be a serious injury to Frankfort. Not only would it cause a great depreciation in property, but the business prosperity of the city would be greatly injured. These are facts that no one can successfully deny. It is therefore a matter of the greatest importance to the people of Frankfort and Franklin county that the Capital should remain where it is.

If the proper effort had been made during the early part of the last session, it is quite probable an appropriation to complete the Capital building could have been obtained, and this would have settled the question for all time to come.

A large number of Senators and Representatives favored it, and the "Courier Journal" in the city from which we had most to fear, openly and repeatedly advocated it. It is quite probable, therefore, if a proper effort had been made in the outset the appropriation could have been obtained.

If at the commencement of the next session our Representative, whoever he may be, will introduce a bill to that effect and the citizens of Frankfort will go to work and aid him to secure its passage, doubtless the bill could be passed and this vexed question settled forever. These suggestions are made in order that the people in due time may make preparation for this important matter.

Benson.

Mrs. James Shouse has been very sick, but is now improving.

Mr. Austin Robinson has left the toll-gate and removed into his new residence on Prospect Hill.

No excitement here, no marriages or deaths to report, and Madame Rumor even is silent for once.

Mr. Thos. Young has removed to the farm occupied by Jay Robinson, and Mr. Andrews, of Bourbon county, has moved to the farm vacated by Mr. Yeung.

Mr. — Reed and family, of Indiana, who were visiting the family of Wm. Taylor, were called home last week by a telegram, Mr. Reed's daughter being very low.

Dr. — Reynolds, formerly of North Benson, has hung out his slate at the residence of Mr. John Brumly, on Railroad Avenue, at this place, and is now ready for callers.

Why do not the Benson Turnpike Company have their bridge over Benson creek, near this place, repainted? It is needing it badly. There are some slides in the pike that should be removed, or they may cause the company some trouble in the future.

Messrs. Alex. Conway and James H. Williams, of Frankfort, and Mr. Lee Conway, of Flat Creek, spent Sunday with Mr. Polk Conway, near this place. Lee called on his girl, but found her not. Poor Lee, we felt very sorry for him, he looked so sad. Try again, Lee.

AMOUR.

When you see a promising colt with a splint, curb or spavin forming, thus spoiling its sale, go at once and procure a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. One dollar invested in this great remedy will save you hundreds of dollars. It has no equal as a liniment for man or beast.
